Preamble

The following regulations have been adopted on the basis of Articles 49(2)(a) and 50(1) of the UEFA Statutes.

I General Provisions

Article 1

Scope of application

- 1.01 The present regulations govern the rights, duties and responsibilities of all parties participating and involved in the preparation and organisation of the 2009/10 UEFA European Under-19 Championship (hereinafter the competition).

FIFA U-20 World Cup

- 1.02 When the final round takes place in an even year, the UEFA European Under-19 Championship counts as the European qualifying competition for the FIFA U-20 World Cup.

II Entries – Admission - Duties

Article 2

Entries for the competition

- 2.01 UEFA stages the competition every year. The competition is open to all UEFA member associations and takes place only if at least 26 member associations have entered.

Admission criteria

- 2.02 To be eligible to participate in the competition, an association must fulfil the following criteria:
- a) it must confirm in writing that the association itself, as well as its players and officials, agree to respect the statutes, regulations, directives and decisions of UEFA;
 - b) it must confirm in writing that the association itself, as well as its players and officials, agree to recognise the jurisdiction of the Court of Arbitration for Sport (CAS) in Lausanne as defined in the relevant provisions of the UEFA Statutes and agree that any proceedings before the CAS concerning admission to or exclusion from the competition will be held in an expedited manner in accordance with the Code of Sports-related Arbitration of the CAS and with the directions issued by the CAS;
 - c) it must fill in the official entry form, which must reach the UEFA administration within the set deadline together with all other documents which the UEFA administration deems necessary for ascertaining compliance with the admission criteria.

- 2.03 If an association does not fulfil the admission criteria, the UEFA administration will not admit it to the competition. Such decisions are final.

Duties of the associations

- 2.04 On entering the competition, participating associations agree:
- a) to comply with the Laws of the Game issued by the IFAB;
 - b) to respect the principles of fair play as defined in the UEFA Statutes;
 - c) to stage and/or play all matches in the competition in accordance with the present regulations;
 - d) to observe the UEFA Safety and Security Regulations (2006 edition) for all matches in the competition;
 - e) to stage all matches in the competition in a stadium meeting the structural criteria of the stadium category required by paragraph 11.01;
 - f) to comply with all decisions regarding the competition taken by the UEFA Executive Committee, the UEFA administration or any other competent body and communicated appropriately (by UEFA circular letter or by official letter, fax or email);
 - g) if appropriate, to confirm that the artificial turf meets the applicable FIFA quality standards and to send the UEFA administration a copy of the required FIFA licensing certificate issued by a FIFA-accredited laboratory within the 12 months before the entry deadline;
 - h) not to represent UEFA without UEFA's prior written approval.

III Cup – Medals – Respect Fair Play Trophy

Article 3

Cup

- 3.01 A challenge cup donated by UEFA is presented to the winning association for one year. The holders are responsible for the loss of or any damage to the cup, and must return it to the UEFA administration in perfect condition two months before the next final round. UEFA is responsible for engraving the cup with the name of the winning association. The challenge cup becomes the permanent property of any association that wins it three consecutive times or five times in ten years. Once a cycle of three successive wins or five in total has been completed, the association concerned starts a new cycle from zero.
- 3.02 If, for any reason, the competition cannot take place, the challenge cup must be returned to the UEFA administration.

Replica

- 3.03 The winner of the competition also receives a scaled-down replica of the challenge cup, which the association may keep.
- 3.04 The winner of the competition may make one additional copy of the challenge cup, provided the copy is clearly marked as a replica and does not exceed four-fifths of the size of the original.
- 3.05 Cups and replica cups awarded to winners of the competition (past and current) must remain within the relevant member association's control at all times and must not leave the member association's country without UEFA's prior written consent. Member associations must not permit a cup or replica cup to be used in any context where a third party (including, without limitation, any of their sponsors or other commercial partners) is granted visibility or in any other way which could lead to an association between any third party and the cup and/or the competition. Member associations must comply with any cup use guidelines that may be issued by UEFA from time to time.

Medals

- 3.06 Thirty gold medals are presented to the winning team and thirty silver medals to the runners-up. Additional medals may not be produced.

Commemorative items

- 3.07 The teams placed second to eighth receive a commemorative plaque.
- 3.08 Each player participating in the final round receives a commemorative diploma.

Special awards

- 3.09 A special award may be presented to the top goal-scorer of the final round.

Respect fair play trophy

- 3.10 A fair play competition takes place in which only the matches of the final round of the competition are taken into account. The winner receives a scaled-down replica trophy which it may keep.

IV Responsibilities

Article 4

Responsibilities of the competing associations

- 4.01 The associations are responsible for the behaviour of their players, officials, members, supporters and any person carrying out a function at a match on their behalf.
- 4.02 If necessary, competing national associations must apply for visas from the local diplomatic mission of the host country well in advance.

- 4.03 Unless special permission is granted by UEFA, teams and/or players participating in the final round are not allowed to play any other matches in the host country until the end of the final round. Similarly, players selected for the final round are restricted from playing in any other match, in the host country or elsewhere, while their team is still involved in the final round.

Responsibilities of the host association

- 4.04 The host association is the national association of a country where matches in the qualifying, elite and/or final rounds are staged.
- 4.05 In conjunction with UEFA, the host association undertakes to make the appropriate arrangements for the staging of the matches it is hosting.
- 4.06 The host association is responsible for order and security before, during and after the match. The host association may be called to account for incidents of any kind and may be disciplined.
- 4.07 The contracts required for the staging of matches are concluded by the host association in its own name and on its own account. The same provision applies to agreements reached with government authorities.
- 4.08 The host association of the final round undertakes to observe the staging agreement signed with UEFA.
- 4.09 Unless special permission is granted by UEFA, the grounds reserved for training and matches in the final round may not be used for other matches and events during the three days prior to the tournament or during the event itself.

V Insurance

Article 5

- 5.01 All persons involved in the competition (qualifying, elite and final rounds) are responsible for their own insurance coverage.
- 5.02 The participating associations are responsible for and undertake to conclude all necessary and adequate insurance coverage for their delegations, including players and officials, at their own expense.
- 5.03 Host associations staging matches and/or tournaments in the competition must conclude adequate insurance coverage with reputable insurers for all of their risks arising under these regulations at their own expense, in accordance with their respective responsibilities, as set out in Article 4 of these regulations and in the staging agreement (final round). The third-party liability policy must include an appropriate guaranteed sum for damages to persons, objects and property, as well as for pure economic losses corresponding to the specific circumstances of the associations concerned. Likewise, the policies must fully cover all risks connected with the staging of the matches or tournaments in question (including, but not limited to, force majeure events). In any case, the host associations must ensure that UEFA is included as co-insured party in all insurance policies as defined in the present paragraph.

- 5.04 If the host association is not the owner of the relevant stadiums in which matches are played, then it is also responsible for providing fully comprehensive insurance policies, including, but not limited to, third-party liability and property insurance, taken out by the relevant stadium owner and/or tenant. If appropriate insurance is not provided by the stadium owner and/or tenant in due time, the host association concludes the necessary additional insurance cover at its own expense, failing which, it agrees that such insurance may be concluded by UEFA at the host association's cost.
- 5.05 The host association undertakes to hold UEFA harmless from any claims for liability accruing in relation to the staging and organising of a match. At any time, UEFA may request from all involved, in writing and free of charge, releases of liability and/or hold harmless notes and/or confirmations or copies of the policies concerned in one of UEFA's official languages.
- 5.06 For the final round, UEFA concludes insurance coverage in accordance with its respective responsibilities, as set out in the staging agreement.

VI Competition System

Article 6

Phases of the competition

- 6.01 The competition consists of a qualifying round, elite round and final round.
- 6.02 Participating associations will be divided up as follows:
 - The host association of the final round – France – qualifies automatically for the final round.
 - The 52 remaining teams will contest the qualifying round.

A. Qualifying round, elite round

Group formations

- 6.03 The 52 associations participating in the qualifying round are drawn into 13 groups of four teams.
- 6.04 For the draw for the qualifying round, the UEFA administration establishes coefficient rankings based on sporting results of the last three seasons as well as the draw procedure.
- 6.05 The 13 group winners, the 13 runners-up and the two best third-ranked teams from the qualifying round play the elite round.
- 6.06 To determine the two best third-placed teams from the qualifying round, only the results of the third-placed team against the winners and runners-up in each group will be taken into account and the following criteria will apply in the order given:

- a) higher number of points obtained in these matches;
- b) superior goal difference from these matches;
- c) higher number of goals scored in these matches;
- d) fair play conduct of the teams in all group matches in the qualifying round;
- e) drawing of lots.

6.07 A draw for the elite round will be conducted to place the 28 participating associations into seven groups of four teams each. The UEFA administration will establish the draw procedure and communicate it prior to the draw.

Match system

6.08 All matches in the qualifying and elite rounds must be played in the form of mini-tournaments hosted by one of the associations in a given group. Each team plays each of the other teams in the group once, with three points awarded for a win, one point for a draw and none for a defeat.

Equality of points at mini-tournaments

6.09 If two or more teams are equal on points on completion of the group matches, the following criteria are applied to determine the ranking of the teams in question:

- a) Higher number of points obtained in the group matches played among the teams in question.
- b) Superior goal difference resulting from the group matches played among the teams in question.
- c) Higher number of goals scored in the group matches played among the teams in question.
- d) If, after having applied criteria a) to c), two teams still have an equal ranking, criteria a) to c) will be reapplied to determine the ranking of the two teams. If this procedure does not lead to a decision, criteria e) and f) will apply.
- e) Results of all group matches:
 - 1. Superior goal difference.
 - 2. Higher number of goals scored.
- f) Drawing of lots.

6.10 If two teams which have the same number of points and the same number of goals scored and conceded play their last group match against each other and are still equal at the end of that match, their final rankings will be determined by kicks from the penalty mark (Article 16) and not by the criteria listed under 6.09 a) to f). This rule is applicable if a ranking of the teams is required to determine the group winner (qualifying round and elite round) or the runners-up and the third-ranked team (qualifying round).

Drawing of lots

- 6.11 If on completion of a mini-tournament a draw is required, the lots are drawn in the teams' hotel after the final match. The draw is made by the UEFA match delegate and the heads of delegation or team representatives must sign a document stating that they accept the result of the draw.

Article 7

Announcement of the host association

- 7.01 The national associations hosting mini-tournaments must be confirmed and communicated to the visiting teams and the UEFA administration in writing by the set deadline. If no host association can be found or if no agreement can be reached by the four teams concerned by the set deadline, the principles stated in Annex I, point 1 will apply.

Match dates

- 7.02 The host associations must inform the UEFA administration of all match dates within the set deadline. If no agreement can be reached by the four teams concerned by this deadline, the criteria stated in Annex I, point 2 will apply.
- 7.03 Qualifying round matches must be played between 1 July and 20 November 2009.
- 7.04 Elite round matches must in principle be played by the end of May 2010.

Match venues

- 7.05 Match venues must be fixed by the host association and announced to its opponents and the UEFA administration at least 60 days before the start of the mini-tournament by means of the form provided for this purpose by the UEFA administration.
- 7.06 The host association must ensure that all tournament hotels are easily accessible. Unless the visiting associations give their approval, no tournament hotel may be situated more than a two-hour drive from the nearest international airport. Special approval from the UEFA administration is required for tournament venues located on islands or in other places which have few international flights or which necessitate internal flights. Unless the visiting associations agree otherwise, no match venue may be located more than a one-hour bus drive from all tournament hotels.

Kick-off times

- 7.07 Kick-off times must be announced to the opponents and to the UEFA administration at least 30 days before the start of the tournament. If required for reasons of sporting fairness, matches played on the last matchday must kick off at the same time.

- 7.08 Unless the UEFA administration grants special approval, associations are not allowed to fix kick-off times before 11.00 or after 21.00 (local time).

Arrival of the teams

- 7.09 Teams must arrive at the tournament venue one day before the start of the mini-tournament. Unless the team in question and the host association have agreed otherwise, teams arriving more than one day prior to the start of the tournament are responsible for the extra costs incurred as a result of their early arrival.

Departure of visiting teams

- 7.10 Visiting teams should leave the tournament venue the day after their last match. Teams departing any later bear the extra costs incurred as a result of their late departure.

Article 8

B. Final round

- 8.01 As a general rule, the final round is played as a tournament. Eight teams take part. The host country qualifies automatically. The seven group winners of the elite round qualify.
- 8.02 The Executive Committee has entrusted France with the organisation and staging of the final round.
- 8.03 The final round will take place between 18 and 30 July 2010.
- 8.04 If the final round cannot be played as a tournament, the UEFA administration will decide on the playing system.

Local organising committee

- 8.05 The host association must set up a local organising committee (LOC), which is responsible for the following:
- proposing match venues and stadiums to the UEFA administration;
 - making all necessary arrangements for the staging of the matches;
 - adhering to the financial provisions as per Article 27 of these regulations.

Fixture list

- 8.06 The UEFA administration, in conjunction with the LOC, is responsible for confirming the venues, the fixture list and the kick-off times of the matches.

Group formations

- 8.07 A draw will be conducted by the UEFA administration in the country of the host association to allocate the eight teams into two groups of four.

8.08 The two groups will be formed as follows:

Group A: Teams A1, A2, A3 and A4

Group B: Teams B1, B2, B3 and B4

Match system

8.09 Each team plays each of the other teams in the group once, with three points awarded for a win, one point for a draw and none for a defeat. The group matches will be played according to the following schedule. The last two matches in each group must kick off at the same time.

Group A

Matchday 1	Matchday 2	Matchday 3
------------	------------	------------

A1 v A2	A1 v A3	A4 v A1
---------	---------	---------

A3 v A4	A2 v A4	A2 v A3

------------	------------	------------

B1 v B2	B1 v B3	B4 v B1
---------	---------	---------

B3 v B4	B2 v B4	B2 v B3
---------	---------	---------

The first-named team will be considered as the home team.

Tournament programme

8.10 The final round will be played according to the following schedule:

Day 1: Arrival of participating teams

Day 2: Tournament organisational meeting

Day 3: Matchday 1

Day 4: Rest day

Day 5: Rest day

Day 6: Matchday 2

Day 7: Rest day

Day 11: Rest day

Day 12: Semi-finals

Day 13: Departure of the eliminated teams

Rest day for the other teams

- Day 14: Rest day
Day 15: Final
Day 16: Departure

Equality of points

- 8.11 If two or more teams are equal on points on completion of the group matches, the following criteria are applied to determine the rankings of the teams in question:
- a) Higher number of points obtained in the group matches played among the teams in question.
 - b) Superior goal difference resulting from the group matches played among the teams in question.
 - c) Higher number of goals scored in the group matches played among the teams in question.
 - d) If, after having applied criteria a) to c), two teams still have an equal ranking, criteria a) to c) will be reapplied to determine the final ranking of the two teams. If this procedure does not lead to a decision, criteria e) to g) will apply.
 - e) Results of all group matches:
 1. Superior goal difference.
 2. Higher number of goals scored.
 - f) Fair play ranking of the teams in question (only final round).
 - g) Drawing of lots.
- 8.12 If two teams which have the same number of points and the same number of goals scored and conceded play their last group match against each other and are still equal at the end of that match, their final rankings will be determined by kicks from the penalty mark (Article 16) and not by the criteria listed under 8.11 a) to g).

Semi-finals

- 8.13 The group winners and runners-up contest the semi-finals according to the cup (knock-out) system, as follows:
- Semi-final 1: Winner of Group A v Runner-up of Group B
Semi-final 2: Winner of Group B v Runner-up of Group A

Final

- 8.14 The winning semi-finalists contest the final as follows:
Winner of semi-final 1 v Winner of semi-final 2

Same number of goals in the final or a semi-final

- 8.15 If the scores are level at the end of normal time in the final or a semi-final, extra time consisting of two periods of 15 minutes will be played. If the two teams are still equal after extra time, the winners will be determined by kicks from the penalty mark (see Article 16).

VII Refusal to Play, Cancellation of Match, Match Abandoned and Similar Cases

Article 9

Refusal to play and similar cases

- 9.01 If an association refuses to play or is responsible for a match not taking place or not being played in full, the Control and Disciplinary Body will take a decision in the matter.
- 9.02 Exceptionally, the Control and Disciplinary Body can validate the result as it stood at the moment when the match was abandoned if the match result was to the detriment of the association responsible for the match being abandoned.
- 9.03 An association which refuses to play or is responsible for a match not taking place or not being played in full loses all entitlement to payments from UEFA.
- 9.04 Upon receipt of a reasoned and well-documented request from the association concerned, the UEFA administration may set an amount of compensation for financial loss.

Article 10

Cancellation of a mini-tournament

- 10.01 If the host association has to cancel a mini-tournament, it must notify the visiting teams, the referees and the UEFA match delegates before their departures. Otherwise, the host association is responsible for their travel, board and lodging expenses. The UEFA administration must be notified at the same time. The UEFA administration takes the necessary decision regarding the reorganisation of the mini-tournament.

Unfit fields of play, bad weather

- 10.02 If any doubt arises as to the condition of the field of play after the visiting teams' departure from home, the referee decides on the field of play itself whether or not it is fit for play.
- 10.03 If a referee declares that the match cannot commence because the field is not fit for play, or because of the weather conditions, the match must, in principle, be played the next day, subject to the approval of the UEFA administration.

Match abandoned

- 10.04 If a match is abandoned before the end of normal time or during any extra time because the field is not fit for play, or because of the weather conditions, a 90-minute replay must, in principle, be played the next day. In consultation with the associations concerned, the match may, however, be played on another date set by the UEFA administration within two hours of the referee's decision to postpone the match. In case of dispute, the UEFA administration fixes the date and kick-off time of the match. Its decision is final.

Reasons beyond control

- 10.05 If the match cannot commence or is abandoned before the end of normal time or during any extra time for reasons beyond control, a 90-minute replay takes place on a new date set by the UEFA administration, whose decision is final.

Expenses

- 10.06 If, after the arrival of the teams at the venue, a match or an entire mini-tournament cannot commence or has to be abandoned, the travel, board and lodging expenses of the visiting teams, as well as the relevant hosting costs, are borne by the associations concerned in equal parts.

VIII Stadiums, Match Balls and Match Organisation

Article 11

Stadium category

- 11.01 Unless stipulated otherwise in these regulations, all matches in the competition must be played in a stadium which meets the structural criteria of category 1, as defined in the UEFA Stadium Infrastructure Regulations.

Exceptions to a structural criterion

- 11.02 The UEFA administration may grant an exception to a specific structural criterion for the stadium category in question in cases of particular hardship and upon reasoned request. An exception can be granted for one or more matches in the competition or for the whole duration of the competition. Such decisions are final.

Stadium certificate and safety certificate

- 11.03 Each host association is responsible for:
- a) inspecting every stadium concerned and for issuing stadium certificates which have to be forwarded to the UEFA administration confirming that the stadiums meet the structural criteria of the required stadium category;
 - b) sending, at least 60 days prior to the match, the UEFA administration a copy of the certificate issued by the competent public authorities confirming that the stadium, including its facilities (emergency lighting system, first aid facilities, type of protection against intrusion by spectators into the playing area, etc.), has been thoroughly inspected and meets all the safety requirements laid down by the applicable national law.

- 11.04 The UEFA administration accepts or rejects the stadiums on the basis of these certificates. Its decisions are final.

Stadium inspections

- 11.05 The UEFA administration may carry out stadium inspections at any time before and during the competition to check whether the required structural criteria have been and are still being met. Cases of non-conformity with an applicable structural criterion may be referred to the UEFA Control and Disciplinary Body, which will decide on appropriate measures in accordance with the UEFA Disciplinary Regulations.

Artificial turf standard

- 11.06 Matches may be played on artificial turf, in accordance with the UEFA Stadium Infrastructure Regulations and provided that such artificial turf meets the FIFA International Artificial Turf Standard.
- 11.07 The owner of the artificial turf and the host national association are fully responsible for meeting the above requirements, in particular those related to:
- a) maintenance work and ongoing improvement measures; and
 - b) safety and environmental measures as set out in the FIFA Quality Concept – Handbook of Test Methods and Requirements for Artificial Turf Football Surfaces.
- 11.08 The owner of the artificial turf and the host national association must obtain sufficient warranties and/or guarantees related to the material and the installation from the manufacturer and the installer of the artificial turf.
- 11.09 UEFA cannot be held responsible for any damages to third parties resulting from the use of the artificial turf.

Clocks

- 11.10 Clocks in the stadium showing the amount of time played may run during the match, provided they are stopped at the end of normal time in each half, i.e. after 45 and 90 minutes respectively. This stipulation also applies in the event of extra time (i.e. after 15 and 30 minutes).

Match balls

- 11.11 Balls must conform to the requirements laid down in the Laws of the Game.
- 11.12 For qualifying and elite round matches as well as training sessions, balls must be provided by the host association.

- 11.13 The balls used for matches and training sessions in the final round are, in principle, supplied by UEFA.

Article 12

Match organisation

- 12.01 The UEFA, FIFA and UEFA Respect flags, as well as the flags of the teams taking part in the match, must be flown in the stadium at all the matches in the competition. In addition, the flag of the national association, region or city in which the match is being played may be flown. The national anthems of both teams involved must be played.

- 12.03 Only six team officials and the seven substitute players are allowed to sit on the substitutes' bench, i.e. a total of 13 persons. The names of all these persons and their functions must be listed on the match sheet.
- 12.04 Smoking is not allowed in the technical area during matches.
- 12.05 The official UEFA representatives and at least four representatives of the visiting associations must be provided with top-category seats.

IX Media Matters

Article 13

Access to training sessions

- 13.01 If teams arrange a training session before a match played in this competition – whether at the stadium where the match is to be played or elsewhere – it has to be open to media representatives (TV and radio representatives, written press, website journalists and photographers) for at least 15 minutes.

Field of play and technical zone

- 13.02 No representatives of the written press or audio media are allowed in the playing area or the area between the boundaries of the field and the spectators.
- 13.03 In terms of the mass media, only a limited number of audiovisual rights-holder photographers, TV production staff and cameramen – all equipped with special permits for the event – are allowed in the area between the boundaries of the field and the spectators, where they carry out their work in the specific locations assigned to them (Annex IIIa and Annex IIIb).

Post-match press conference

- 13.04 If applicable, the post-match press conference at the venue must start no later than 15 minutes after the final whistle. Upon request and in agreement with the teams, the head coach and any player should be available for this purpose.

Mixed zone

- 13.05 A mixed zone may be set up for the media on the way from the dressing rooms to the team transport area. This area offers reporters additional opportunities to conduct interviews and is accessible only to coaches, players and media representatives.

Written press

- 13.06 This section applies to media that report in writing only, for whatever platform (e.g. newspaper, website, mobile portal).
- 13.07 Accreditation applications from such media will be accepted on condition that they do not cover the game live in sound and/or pictures.
- 13.08 Therefore, subject to places being available in the press box, such media will be accredited as written press, with access to the post-match press conference and mixed zone.

Photographs

- 13.09 Photographs taken by officially accredited photographers may be published online (including internet and mobile) for editorial purposes only, subject to the following conditions:
- they must appear as stills and not as moving pictures or quasi-video feed;
 - there must be an interval of at least 20 seconds between the posting of any two photographs published online.

X Laws of the Game

Article 14

- 14.01 Matches are played in conformity with the Laws of the Game promulgated by the International Football Association Board (IFAB).
- 14.02 Each match lasts 2 x 45 minutes.

Substitution of players

- 14.03 The substitution of three players per team is permitted in the course of the match. The use of substitution boards (preferably electronic) to indicate the substitution of players is compulsory. The substitution boards must be numbered on both sides.
- 14.04 During the game, substitutes are allowed to leave the technical area to warm up. At the pre-match organisational meeting, the referee determines where exactly they may warm up (behind the first assistant referee or behind the advertising boards behind the goal) and how many substitutes are allowed to warm up simultaneously. In principle, three substitutes per team are allowed to warm up at the same time; exceptionally, if space so permits, the referee can allow all the substitutes of each team to warm up simultaneously in the dedicated area.

Match sheet

- 14.05 Before each match, each team receives a match sheet on which the numbers, surnames, first names and dates of birth of the 18 players in the squad must be indicated, together with the surnames and first names of the team officials seated on the substitutes' bench. The match sheet must be properly completed in block capitals and signed by the captain and the authorised team official.
- 14.06 The 11 first-named players must commence the match. The other seven players are designated as substitutes. The numbers on the players' shirts must correspond with the numbers indicated on the match sheet. The goalkeepers and team captain must be identified.
- 14.07 Both teams must hand their match sheets to the referee at least 60 minutes before kick-off.
- 14.08 If the match sheet is not completed and returned in time, the matter will be submitted to the Control and Disciplinary Body.
- 14.09 Only three of the substitutes listed on the match sheet may take part in the match. A player who has been substituted may take no further part in the match.
- 14.10 If there are fewer than seven players on either of the teams, the match is abandoned. In this case, the Control and Disciplinary Body decides on the consequences.

Replacement of players on the match sheet

- 14.11 After the match sheets have been completed and signed by both teams and returned to the referee, and if the match has not yet kicked off, the following provisions apply:
 - a) If any of the first 11 players listed on the match sheet are not able to start the match for any reason, they may be replaced by any of the seven substitutes. Such replacements reduce the quota of substitute players accordingly. During the match, three players may still be replaced.
 - b) If any of the seven substitutes listed on the match sheet are not able to be fielded for any reason, they may not be replaced, which means that the quota of substitute players is reduced accordingly.
 - c) If a goalkeeper listed on the match sheet is not able to be fielded for any reason, he may be replaced by another goalkeeper not previously listed on the match sheet.

Article 15

Half-time interval, break before extra time

- 15.01 The half-time interval lasts 15 minutes. If extra time is required, there is a five-minute break between the end of normal time and the start of extra time. As a rule, the players remain on the field of play during this five-minute break, at the discretion of the referee.

Article 16

Kicks from the penalty mark

- 16.01 For matches where the winners need to be decided by kicks from the penalty mark the procedure laid down in the Laws of the Game applies.
- 16.02 The referee decides which goal will be used:
- a) For reasons of safety/security, state of the field of play, lighting or any other similar reasons, the referee may choose which goal will be used without tossing a coin. In this case, he is not required to justify his decision, which is final.
 - b) If he considers that either goal can be used for the kicks, then, in the presence of the two captains, he decides that the head side of the coin corresponds to one goal and the tail side to the other. He then tosses the coin to determine which goal will be used.
- 16.03 To ensure that the procedure is strictly observed, the referee is assisted by the assistant referees and the fourth official, who also note down the numbers of the players on each team who take kicks from the penalty mark. The assistant referees position themselves according to the diagram in the Laws of the Game.
- 16.04 If the taking of kicks from the penalty mark cannot be completed because of weather conditions or for other reasons of force majeure, the results will be decided by the drawing of lots by the referee in the presence of the UEFA match delegate and the two team captains.
- 16.05 If through the fault of a team, the taking of kicks from the penalty mark cannot be completed, the provisions of paragraphs 9.01 to 9.04 of the present regulations apply.

As a rule this takes place during a meal at the team's accommodation before the first match in a mini-tournament or the final round. Only one such visual check is made.

List of 18 players (provisional) for the qualifying and elite rounds

In cases of particular hardship and upon reasoned request, the UEFA General Secretary may grant exceptions.
- 17.09 For age and identity verification purposes, this final list must be submitted with each player's passport or identity card to the UEFA match delegate the day before the start of the mini-tournament. A meeting with the UEFA representatives and the heads of delegation of the participating teams is held for this purpose.

The surname and first name of the head coach must also be indicated on this list which must be submitted to the UEFA administration at least 20 full days before the first match in the final round. After this deadline, no changes to the list will be accepted. Upon receipt of the list, the UEFA administration forwards a copy to each participating association.

- 17.16 For age and identity verification purposes, this official list must be submitted with each player's passport or identity card to the UEFA match delegate the day before the team's first match. A meeting with the UEFA representatives and the heads of delegation of the participating teams is held for this purpose.
- 17.17 If any of the 18 players on the list is seriously injured before the team's first match in the final round, or in the case of reasons beyond control, the UEFA administration may allow him to be replaced.
- 17.18 Injured or sick goalkeepers and a maximum of two injured or sick players may be replaced upon submission of written medical evidence in one of UEFA's official languages and approved by the UEFA doctor on duty at the final round. ANNEX I: Instructions for the Organisation and Staging of mini-tournaments

This annex sets out the requirements for hosting a mini-tournament in the UEFA European Under-19 Championship.

UEFA's Mini-Tournament Manual that all member associations have received aims to assist the host association with the implementation of these instructions.

For the sake of simplicity, "host" refers to the national association hosting a mini-tournament.

1. CHOICE OF MINI-TOURNAMENT HOST

Following the draw, the four teams in a given group have to agree which will host the mini-tournament. If the four associations cannot agree, the UEFA Administration will decide according to the following principles:

1.1. If more than one association is interested in hosting the mini-tournament, the following criteria will be applied:

- a) Opinion of the majority of the teams.
- b) Priority given to associations which are not hosting a mini-tournament in the same phase of the UEFA European Under-17 Championship.
- c) Draw.

1.2. If one association is interested in hosting the mini-tournament:

The UEFA Administration will designate that association as host.

1.3. If no association has expressed an interest in hosting the mini-tournament:

The UEFA Administration will conduct a draw to determine the host. Associations which are already hosting a tournament in the same phase of the UEFA European Under-17 Championship will not be included in the draw.

2. MATCH DATES

Following the draw, the four teams in a given group have to agree on the match dates.

If no agreement can be reached between the four teams concerned, the following criteria will apply:

- a) Opinion of the majority of the teams.
- b) If no majority can be reached, the mini-tournament will be staged to coincide with one of the international match dates.
- c) Climatic conditions.

3. TOURNAMENT SCHEDULE

The mini-tournament must be organised according to the following schedule. The last two matches in each group must kick off at the same time.

Day 1:

Arrival of all teams
Arrival of all referees
Arrival of the UEFA match officers
Tournament organisational meeting

Day 2:

First matchday: Matches 1 v 3 and 2 v 4

Day 3:

Rest day

Day 4:

Second matchday: Matches 1 v 4 and 3 v 2

Day 5:

Rest day

Day 6:

Rest day

Day 7:

Third matchday: Matches 2 v 1 and 4 v 3

Day 8:

Departure of all teams
Departure of the referees
Departure of the UEFA match officers

The host is responsible for notifying the other participating teams and the UEFA administration of all match details (dates, venues, kick-off times and hotel accommodation) by the set deadlines.

4. ACCOMMODATION

The delegations must be accommodated either in sports schools or medium-standard hotels (3-star minimum).

The following facilities must be provided and paid for by the host for a maximum of 24 persons per delegation:

4.1. Rooms for the delegations

- Twin rooms for the players (18 players = nine rooms). Two single beds must be provided in these rooms. One large bed for two players is not acceptable.
- Single rooms for the six delegation officials (six rooms) in the same accommodation as their team.
- Additional delegation members may be accommodated, at the expense of their own association, either at the same or nearby accommodation.
- If possible, each delegation will be accommodated on a different floor.
- Two additional rooms must be provided per team for medical treatment and the equipment storage. The host is also requested to provide a massage table in the medical treatment room. The cost of these two rooms is borne by the host.

4.2. Rooms for the referees and UEFA match officers

- Single rooms for the referees and the UEFA match officers.
- If possible, all referees and UEFA match officers will be accommodated on the same floor, separate from the teams.

4.3. General room requirements

- All hotel rooms must have bathroom and toilet facilities which meet standard sanitary requirements.
- All rooms must have adequate wardrobe space for clothing.
- All rooms must be adequately heated or air-conditioned.
- Rooms must be cleaned daily.

4.4. Laundry

A 24-hour laundry service for the playing kits of the participating teams and referees (kit which has been worn for matches, i.e. shirts, shorts and socks, but not tracksuits) must be provided and paid for by the host.

4.5. Meeting rooms

One meeting room for a minimum of 30 persons for each team must be made available for the entire duration of the tournament.

All meeting rooms must be equipped with a TV/video/DVD and overhead projector.

The cost of these rooms must be covered by the host.

4.6. Dining room

A spacious dining room split into five different areas – four areas for the teams, one area for the referees, UEFA match officers and LOC – must be provided.

In principle, the referees and UEFA match officers take their meals in the same dining room as the delegations, at a separate table.

Officials must refrain from smoking and drinking alcohol in the dining room in front of the players.

5. MEALS

Three meals a day must be served to the tournament participants. The host must check whether special wishes can be catered for as far as the type of food is concerned, and also the time at which meals are served.

Breakfast, lunch and dinner must be provided for the tournament participants, based on the match and training schedules of the teams in question.

Emphasis must be placed on providing suitable food for footballers, which also takes national dining habits of participating teams into account.

5.1. Snacks, light meals

Snacks or light meals between ordinary meals must be made available to the teams upon request and paid for by the team concerned. However, if such a meal replaces an ordinary meal, the host must bear the costs. If this consists of an additional meal, the requesting team must pay for it.

5.2. Drinks

A sufficient supply of soft drinks and tea must be made available for the participants with meals. At all training sessions and matches, a sufficient amount of still mineral water must be provided to the teams. In addition, mineral water must also be provided for the players in their rooms. Coffee, tea, milk (hot and cold) and chocolate drinks or powder must be available at breakfast.

The participants themselves must pay for all other drinks.

6. TRAINING SESSIONS

Each team must be allocated its own training ground for the entire duration of the tournament. Exceptionally, two grounds may be shared by four teams. The teams must be given the possibility to use these grounds at any time and as often as requested.

The training grounds must be of a suitable size, in good condition, freshly mowed, fully marked and equipped with standard and/or mobile goals. They must be located near the team accommodation. Travel time from a team's accommodation to the training ground must not exceed 20 minutes.

The dressing rooms at training grounds must be of an adequate size, and bathroom and toilet facilities should correspond to normal standards of hygiene.

Upon request, the host must provide a sufficient number of training balls to all participating teams.

If the prevailing weather conditions and state of the playing field so allow, the teams are entitled to hold a training session of up to 45 minutes the day before the match in the stadium where the match will be played. The host, in cooperation with the referee and UEFA match delegate, will take a final decision in case of any uncertainty.

7. MATCH ORGANISATION

In addition to the stipulations of Article 12 of the regulations, the host must ensure that the visiting teams bring their national anthems (CD or tape of maximum 90 seconds) and national flags with them and make them available for the matches in good time.

A minimum of eight ball girls/boys must be provided for each match.

Ten match balls must be provided for each match.

Pre-match procedure

Day before the match

Provided that the weather conditions and the state of the playing field so allow, training sessions for both teams take place. The duration depends on the state of the playing field but must not exceed 45 minutes per team.

Matchday

The following countdown (in minutes before kick-off) must be respected.

- 90' Arrival at the stadium of the teams, referees, UEFA match delegate and/or referee observer
- 60' Both teams complete, sign the match sheet and hand it over to the referee or UEFA match delegate
- 60' to -15' Warm-up on the pitch
- 8' Stud check in the corridor
- 6' Teams enter the field and stand in line facing the VIP box
- 4' National anthem of "away" team
- 3' National anthem of "home" team
- 2' Hand-shaking procedure and team photos
- 1' Coin toss

0' Kick-off (no earlier than 11.00 hours and no later than 21.00 hours local time)

This timetable may be adapted to take account of the distance between the dressing rooms and the playing field.

Half-time interval:

15'

After the final whistle:

Both teams, referee and assistant referees gather in the centre circle, shake hands with each other, wave goodbye to the spectators and leave the pitch.

8. TRANSPORT

The teams, international referees and UEFA match officers must be welcomed upon their arrival in the host country and transported from their point of arrival to the hotel. On the day of their departure, they must also be provided with transport from their accommodation to their point of departure.

The host is also requested to organise transport for official members of delegations who would like to see matches involving opponents.

As a rule, the UEFA match officers will travel with the referees.

The host is responsible for providing the following vehicles:

Teams

Each team must be provided with a bus and driver for the entire duration of the tournament.

Referees

Two spacious and comfortable cars – preferably people carriers (minibuses with six to eight places) – with drivers must be provided to transport referees to and from matches.

9. MEDICAL MATTERS

The health of the players must be the first priority for the organiser of any football event. Consequently, the host must ensure that the necessary measures are taken to guarantee adequate medical services during the entire tournament for all players and officials.

Apart from the normal match arrangements in this respect, e.g. stretcher and bearers in the stadium, ambulance at the stadium, doctor on stand-by in the stadium or at a nearby hospital, first-aid officers, etc., the host must ensure that any player needing medical care can receive preferential treatment and avoid the normal waiting process at a hospital or clinic.

Medical arrangements must be explained to the tournament participants at the organisational meeting.

ANNEX II: Respect Fair Play Assessment

Introduction

1. The fair play assessment forms part of the Respect campaign. Conduct according to the spirit of fair play is essential for the successful promotion and development of and involvement in sport. The objective of activities in favour of fair play is to foster a sporting spirit, as well as the sporting behaviour of players, team officials and spectators, thereby increasing the enjoyment of all those involved in the game.

UEFA Respect fair play rankings

2. In its efforts to promote fair play, UEFA establishes association fair play rankings for each season, based on all matches played in all UEFA competitions (national representative and club teams) between 1 May and 30 April. In establishing these rankings, only those associations whose teams have played at least the required number of matches (i.e. total number of matches assessed divided by the number of associations) are taken into account. For this purpose, fair play conduct is assessed by the appointed UEFA match delegate.

Criteria for an additional place in the Europa League

3. In reward for the fair play example they set, a maximum of three associations which attain an average of 8.0 points or more in the rankings each receive one additional place in the next season's UEFA Europa League. If some associations are equal on points in the rankings, lots will be drawn by the UEFA administration to define the associations that receive an additional place. These additional places are reserved for the winners of the respective domestic top-division fair play competitions, provided that this national assessment is based at least on the following criteria: red and yellow cards, positive play, respect for the opponents as well as for the referee, and the behaviour of the team officials and of the crowd. If the winner of the domestic top-division fair play competition in question has already qualified for a UEFA club competition, the UEFA Europa League Respect fair play place goes to the next-ranked team in the domestic top-division fair play rankings which has not already qualified for a UEFA competition.

Methods of assessment

4. After the match, the match delegate is expected to complete a fair play assessment form in consultation with the referee and, where applicable, the referee observer. The referee confirms that fair play aspects have been duly discussed by signing the fair play assessment form.
5. The assessment form identifies six criteria (items) for the evaluation of the fair play performance of the teams. Assessment should be based on positive rather than negative aspects. As a general rule, maximum assessment marks should not be awarded unless the respective teams have displayed positive attitudes.

The individual items on the assessment form

6. Red and yellow cards

Deduction from a maximum of 10 points:

- yellow card 1 point
- red card 3 points

If a player who has been cautioned with a yellow card commits another offence which would normally be punishable with a yellow card, but who must be sent off for this second offence (combined yellow and red card), only the red card counts, i.e. total of 3 points to be deducted.

If, however, a player who has been cautioned with a yellow card commits another offence for which the punishment is dismissal, a total of 4 points (1+3) must be deducted.

Red and yellow cards is the only item which may take a negative value.

7. Positive play

- maximum 10 points
- minimum 1 point

The aim of this item is to reward positive play which is attractive for the spectators. In assessing positive play, the following aspects should be taken into consideration:

Positive aspects:

- attacking rather than defensive tactics
- acceleration of the game
- efforts to gain time, e.g. bringing the ball quickly back into play, even when in a winning position
- continued pursuit of goals, even if the desired result (e.g. qualification or an away draw) has already been achieved

Negative aspects:

- deceleration of the game
- time-wasting
- tactics based on foul play
- play-acting, etc.

In general terms, positive play correlates with the number of goal-scoring chances created and the number of goals scored.

8. Respect for the opponents

- maximum 5 points
- minimum 1 point

Players are expected to respect the Laws of the Game, the competition regulations, opponents, etc. They are also expected to ensure that fellow team members and everyone else involved in the team abide by the spirit of fair play as well.

In assessing the players' behaviour vis-à-vis the opposition, double counting against the item 'red and yellow cards' should be avoided. However, the UEFA match delegate may take into account the seriousness of the offences punished by cards, as well as offences overlooked by the referee.

Assessment should be based on positive attitudes (e.g. helping an injured opponent) rather than infringements. Blameless behaviour, but without any particularly positive attitude or gestures towards opponents, should be assessed with a mark of 4 rather than 5.

9. Respect for the referees

- maximum 5 points
- minimum 1 point

Players are expected to respect the referees (including assistant referees and fourth officials) as people, as well as for the decisions they take. Double counting against the item 'red and yellow cards' should be avoided. However, the UEFA match delegate may take into account the seriousness of the offences punished by cards.

A positive attitude towards the referees should be rewarded by high marks, including the acceptance of doubtful decisions without protest. Normal behaviour, but without any particularly positive attitude or gestures with respect to the referee team, should be assessed with a mark of 4 rather than 5.

10. Behaviour of the team officials

- maximum 5 points
- minimum 1 point

Team officials, including coaches, are expected to make every effort to develop the sporting, technical, tactical and moral level of their team through all permitted means. They are also expected to instruct their players to behave in a manner which is in accordance with the fair play principles.

Positive and negative aspects of the behaviour of team officials should be assessed; e.g. whether they calm or provoke angry players or fans, how they accept the referee's decisions, etc. Cooperation with the media should also be considered as a factor in the assessment. Blameless behaviour, but without any particularly positive attitude or gestures, should be assessed with a mark of 4 rather than 5.

11. Behaviour of the crowd

- maximum 5 points
- minimum 1 point

The crowd is considered to be a natural component of a football game. The support of the fans may contribute to the success of their team. The crowd is not expected to watch the game in silence. Encouragement of teams by shouting, singing, etc. may have a positive influence on the atmosphere, in accordance with the spirit of fair play.

The spectators are, however, expected to respect the opposing team and the referee. They should appreciate the performance of the opposition, even if they emerge as the winners. They must in no way intimidate or frighten the opposing team, the referee or opposing supporters.

A maximum number of points (5) should not be awarded unless all these requirements are satisfied, especially with respect to the creation of a positive atmosphere.

This item is applicable only if a substantial number of fans of the team concerned are present. If the number of fans is negligible, 'N/A' (not applicable) should be recorded under this entry.

Overall assessment

12. The overall assessment of a team is obtained by adding up the points given for the individual items, dividing this total by the maximum number of points and multiplying the result by 10.
13. The maximum number of points per game generally equals 40. If, however, a given team is being supported by a negligible amount of fans, and the item "Behaviour of the crowd" is not being assessed as a result ('N/A' – see paragraph 10 above), the maximum number of points obtainable will be 35.

Example:

The various items for team 1 are assessed as 8+7+3+4+5+4, giving a total of 31. The general assessment will therefore be:

$$(31/40) \times 10 = \mathbf{7.75}$$

If team 2 had only a small number of fans, and the assessment for the other items was 7+8+2+5+2, with 24 as the total, the general assessment would be:

$$(24/35) \times 10 = \mathbf{6.857}$$

The general assessment should be calculated to three decimal points and not rounded up.

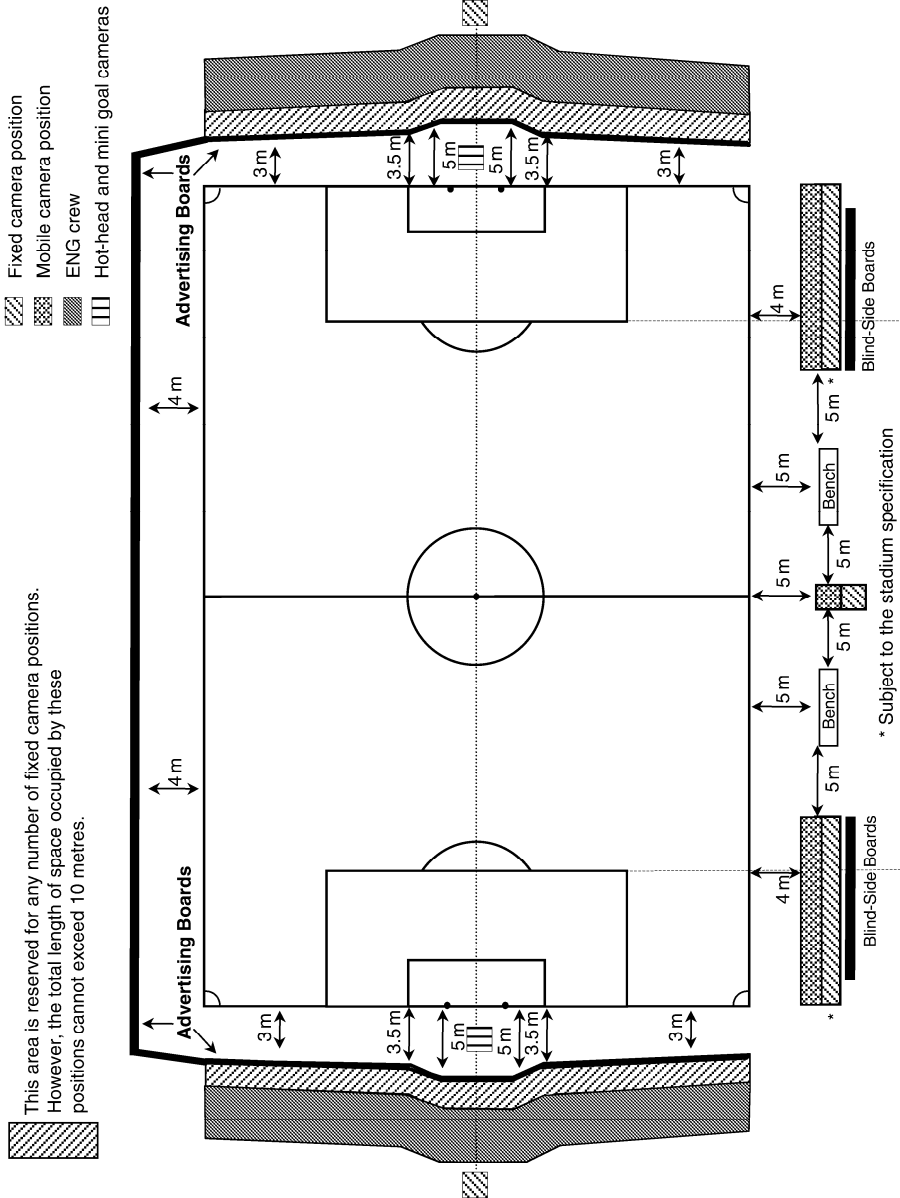

14. In addition to this assessment, the UEFA match delegate should also give brief written comments on the fair play performance of the teams, to explain the positive and negative aspects which formed the basis for his assessment. This written explanation may also include outstanding individual gestures of fair play by players, officials, referees or any other persons.

ANNEX IIIa: Media Positioning at UEFA Matches

- ① Teams before the game
- ② Photographers and TV crews before the game
- ③ Photographers and TV crews during the game
- Important: Photographers and TV representatives must keep off the field of play at all times

ANNEX IIIb: TV Camera Positions

ANNEX IV: Appointment of Referees

1. Single match

UEFA appoints one referee and two assistant referees (proposed by the referee's association) from the same country.

Host association appoints one substitute assistant referee (fourth official).

2. Mini-tournament with 3 teams

UEFA appoints two referees (e.g. GER, POL) + two assistant referees (proposed by the referee's association) from the same country.

No referees appointed by the host association.

Example: Host ESP

Match	Referee	Assistant referees	Fourth Official (substitute referee)
Spain - Italy	Referee GER	Assistant GER / Assistant POL	Referee POL
Croatia - Spain	Referee POL	Assistant POL / Assistant GER	Referee GER
Italy - Croatia	Appointments made by the UEFA match delegate based on performances in the first two matches.

3. Mini-tournament with 4 teams

UEFA appoints three referees (e.g. GER, POL, SUI) + three assistant referees (proposed by the referee's association) from the same country.

Host association appoints one substitute referee (fourth official) + one assistant referee, in principle for the entire tournament.

Example: Host ESP

Match	Referee	Assistant referees	Fourth Official (substitute referee)
Spain - Italy	Referee GER	Assistant GER / Assistant POL	Referee POL
Croatia - Malta	Referee SUI	Assistant SUI / Assistant ESP	Referee ESP
